

AN INTRODUCTION FOR PARTNERS

Seasonal catering for New York gatherings.

Thoughtful, custom menus for events where the food is part of the experience.

NEW YORK CITY · AUGUST 2026

Market-led. Made from scratch.

Le Monde creates food with the care of a private dinner and the ease of a well-run event.

What shapes a Le Monde menu

The season

Produce and ingredients chosen at their best.

The guests

Preferences and dietary needs considered from the start.

The occasion

A menu with the right pace, feeling, and scale.

Professional-kitchen discipline, brought to the table.

Direct sourcing · Careful preparation · Food made for the moment

Made to fit the table.

Every event begins with the room, the guest list, and the feeling the host wants to create.

01

Family-style

Generous shared dishes, served for a table that wants to gather.

02

Plated service

A composed experience for elevated celebrations and client events.

03

Bespoke menus

Seasonal menus tailored to the event, allergies, and preferences.

For private tables, celebrations, creative gatherings, and corporate events across NYC.

Three ways to begin.

Every menu is shaped around the season, the table, and the occasion.
These are starting points rather than fixed lists.

FOR YOUR CLIENTS

A considered food partner

For clients who value detail, a menu can be one more way to make an event feel personal and complete.

Start a conversation

We welcome the chance to talk through an event concept, a menu direction, or a client tasting.
